

There is HOPE in the midst of Isolated Living

Living in isolation is becoming the norm in the current climate. Writing on the subject, Clifford & Monica Hill from Issachar Ministries wrote:

We are none of us isolated from the Lord who loves us with an unending love. Jesus reassured his disciples when they were sitting together at the Last Supper. He said “I will ask the Father, and he will give you another Counsellor to be with you forever – the Spirit of truth. The world cannot accept him, because it neither sees him nor knows him. But you know him, for he lives with you and will be in you. I will never leave you as orphans; I will come to you” (John 14:16-18).

HOPE

Clifford remembers how his mother used to read Psalm 91 to him and his sister when the bombs were falling around them in London during the Battle of Britain and many people are finding this Psalm a comfort today.

Let us not forget, the reassurance we are given in Romans 8:31-39, where Paul says that:

nothing can separate us from the love of God that is in Christ Jesus our Lord.
